We're getting in touch because you applied for and were paid the COVID-19 Wage Subsidy that was available from 4pm 27 March 2020 to 9 June 2020 to help you keep paying your staff.

When you applied for the subsidy, you agreed to provide the Ministry of Social Development with information about you, your business and your employees (with their consent), so we could review any payment granted to you.

We are currently following up on applications for the subsidy to check if recipients of the COVID-19 Wage Subsidy met the eligibility criteria to receive the subsidy and complied with the obligations as set out in the declaration.

Please click on the link below and provide the information asked for in the confirmation form.
