Te Haoroa Programme: Ministry of Social Development Data Warehouse Replacement Report Back

Portfolio Social Development and Employment

On 8 May 2024, the Cabinet Social Outcomes Committee:

- 1 noted that in Budget 2019, the previous government approved funding for the Ministry of Social Development's (MSD) data warehouse replacement programme, Te Haoroa [CAB-19-MIN-0174.36];
- 2 noted that in December 2021, the previous government agreed to provide s 9(2)(b)(ii) for the implementation of Te Haoroa [GOV-21-MIN-0054];
- 3 noted that Te Haoroa commenced in January 2022;
- 4 noted that Te Haoroa has designed and implemented a new cloud-based data platform with full security certification;
- 5 noted that in order to utilise this new technology, MSD has invested in its resource capability with a specific emphasis on new data architecture, analysis, and design, and new ways of building data assets and reporting;
- 6 noted that Te Haoroa has also delivered additional capabilities to MSD, specifically in the data cataloguing, data quality, and data management areas, which support the accessibility and useability of data for front line decision-making;
- 7 noted that Te Haoroa will be integrated into core business delivery by July 2024, and that the programme officially wound up in June 2025.
